

Community art contest

"The Scout Spirit through my adventure"

WOIS, seeks to promote and reflect on the Scout life using art as a means to achieve it. In this first edition, the focus is on a teamwork of three participants; where it should be combined: the letters through a story, the photograph that will illustrate said text and the painting; since the photo must be intervened in color using the technique or material (not digital), which you like best. The theme will be from Scouts anecdotes, under the slogan of the name of the contest: "The Scout Spirit through my adventure".

This contest seeks as an objective, the publication of a book of anecdotes, that its participants have lived.

Within its categories, these topics can be managed:

- Adventure
- Learning
- Service
